1959 SPIRES

Presented by
The Senior Class of
CATHOLIC CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL
GRAND RAPIDS, MICHIGAN

DEDICATION

To Father James Yager, Assistant Principal par excellence — religion instructor, disciplinarian, and friend — in grateful appreciation for all the helpful supervision and guidance he has given to make 1959
the most memorable of our high school years. . . .

To Father Joseph Murphy, Principal of West Catholic, priest extraordinary — teacher of religion, faculty adviser, and friend — in sincere thanks for all the spiritual and practical advice he has offered us throughout the years, and in grateful appreciation for the time and effort he has given to make Class Nite an unforgettable event of our senior year. . . .

We, the seniors of 1959, dedicate our Spires, and pray that, with God's help, they may continue the wonderful work that has made them an essential part of Catholic Central's tradition.
May God bless them always in all ways.

Reverend Joseph E. Murphy

Reverend James P. Yager

IMPRINTS . . .

In the course of 1959 we, the seniors, have reached a new maturity. The intellectual, moral, and physical development that began when we entered Catholic Central is now complete. The education we have received, the people we have met, and the activities in which we have participated have molded us into the young men and women we are today and prepared us for the problems we shall face tomorrow. These school day experiences have left imprints on our minds, on our souls, and on our characters — IMPRINTS that can never be erased.

1959

Rt. Rev. Monsignor William J. Murphy, Principal of Catholic Central, and his competent assistant, Reverend James P. Yager, discuss the merits of an outstanding student in the process of determining possible scholarship recipients.

This is but one of the many daily tasks encountered and executed with perfection, as is every other single activity performed by their unwavering perseverance.

Reverend Joseph E. Murphy,
Principal, West Catholic Central.

Sister M. Irene, O.P., Assistant Principal, East Catholic Central.

In Memoriam

MOTHER M. EVELINE, O.P.

It is most fitting that SPIRES should give tribute to the memory of a great woman who for many years was close to Catholic Central, and for some of those years served as its head.

On September 21, 1958, death came to Mother M. Eveline Mackey, O.P., at the Motherhouse at Marywood; on September 24 her Requiem Mass of burial was read by the Bishop of the diocese. Thus ended the earthly life of a woman who had given sixty-eight years of devoted accomplishment and achievement to the service of God. Endowed by her Creator with significant abilities, she used those abilities extraordinarily well in His service. Possessed of a fine native mind, she grew into an excellent teacher, a sound educator, an administrator with vision; and because of her quality of leadership she was chosen to head her community for nine trying years. During her tenure of office she worked closely with the bishops and priests of the dioceses of Grand Rapids and Saginaw to build and expand good Catholic educational facilities.

It was my privilege to know Mother Eveline for a quarter of a century, and through my association with her I came to know her for what she was — an able administrator, a woman of culture and refinement, a deeply understanding and forgiving person; a truly devoted daughter of Saint Dominic; and a warm, noble and kind friend. May her good soul rest in peace.

Monsignor Murphy

SISTER THADDEA, S.S.N.D.

On September 14, 1958, after a short illness, Sister Mary Thaddea was called to her heavenly reward. Born in Chicago in 1885, she began her teaching career as a School Sister of Notre Dame in 1906. Before coming to Grand Rapids she taught at various schools in Chicago and was at one time the principal of Saint Stanislaus Kostka High School there.

We remember Sister Thaddea, however, because eleven of her fifty-two years in God's service were spent at West Catholic, where she taught Religion, Mathematics, and World History. Though her courses were difficult, the knowledge and self-discipline infused within us by her firm yet gentle manner will remain as a living memorial to her in the hearts of the hundreds of fortunate students who were her "children."

SISTER MARY ZITA, O.P.

On October 25, 1958, the vigil of the Feast of Christ the King, Sister Mary Zita O.P. joined Sister Thaddea in heaven. Sixteen of her fifty years as a servant of God were spent at Catholic Central teaching Religion and English.

Beneath her strict exterior, the understanding and sympathy she extended to all her students made her their friend as well as their teacher. Her enthusiasm and love of work influenced her students to work hard. Being the excellent teacher that she was, her success can be measured by the countless number of young men and women who emerged from her courses with a much greater appreciation and knowledge of English, and who were much better people for having known her.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

The education we have received — one thoroughly permeated with Christian attitudes and ideals — has prepared us to fill our places as Catholics in the secular world of today. It has left indelible impressions of intellectual and moral growth, paving the way to spiritual maturity.

Sister Dionysius approves the exposition on the existence of God being given by Dave Adams, Stan Duba, and Ron Kuzma in her Sophomore Religion class.

RELIGION

The value of a totally Christian education cannot be overestimated; it is the basic step in establishing a plan for true and correct social and moral living. The required four year Religion course in-

David Herdegen and Robert Centilla give a detailed report on the Trinity, using a familiar symbol for illustration. Row 1: Mary Lou Nelson, Sandra Gorecki, Daniel Radawski. Row 2: Louise Duesing and Sandra Matson, students of West Catholic.

Sister Armand discusses the day's lesson with Barbara Paganelli, Barbara Cahill, Carol Gruss, Dixie Doane, Ann Oleneack, and Danna Nowak.

Sister Bridget's Freshmen girls enjoy giving special reports. Here Kathleen Gardeski has the floor, as Nancy Ross and Marie Amante listen with interest.

J. Owen receives recognition for exceptional work on the Mass from Sister Jeanne Anne while M. Otterbein, J. Dianne, R. Saloman, F. Sachen, F. Spica, T. Nichols, T. Kathan, J. Johnson, M. Smolenski, D. Jast, S. Mitchel, T. Bartosiewicz, and M. Dideon eagerly await their turns.

skills in the students correct moral standords and ideals on which they can base their judgments of world offairs, scientific discoveries, and opinions expressed by the classical and contemporary writers.

Stanley Walsh, Richard Brennan, Daniel Hillary, Richard Spinetto, and Raman Tarchinski give their ideas on Apastalic Life in Sister Audrey's Junior Religion class.

A Senior Boys Religion class listens attentively as Father Yager explains the books of the Bible.

Mary Eggleston explains "Hoppiness" to Sharon Bonasiok, Leslie Wurn, Morilyn Smith, Maureen Eordley, and Charlene Baranski by using Sister Rose Miriam's flannel board on which are fixed significant words and phroses pertaining to the subject.

Morgaret Hoogerhyde, Carol Pyman, Katherine Murray, Susan Howard, and Frances Bekken discuss the Book of Ecclesiasticus in Sister Ottilia's Senior Religion class.

Barbara Van Kaeving reads a chapter from the classic "Great Expectations" to her first year English classmates Sally Patrick, and Jeanne Pattak.

Sister Norena presides over a panel discussion on "Catholic Press Month." Members of the panel are Garry Piatek, Carol Malone, Jo Mileski, and Agnes Lang, who will express their personal views on the effects of good Catholic reading on today's generation.

ENGLISH

Since English is the language used in the United States it is imperative that we, who live in this country, be able to express our thoughts, ideas, and opinions in a way that will be understood by our associates. The students of Catholic Central have ample opportunity to gain this necessary knowledge in a required four year English course. This course stresses the practical application of English in everyday life, and offers a glimpse of college English in the interest of the more advanced students.

Painting out famous sites of English Literature are Bob Grzybawski, Janice Hansen, and Bill Faber.

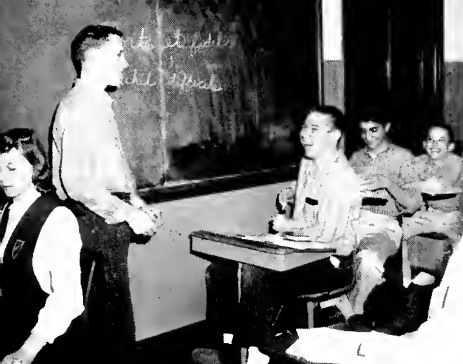

At West Catholic Sister Angela's English class displays a common spirit of earnest study and search for knowledge.

Agatha Cybulskis delivers to Sister Eucharis's English III class her paraphrase of a poem. Row 1: Pat Cavanaugh, Rita Hofmann. Row 2: Mike Masier, Richard Brennan, Chuck Murphy, and James O'Boyle.

A wrong translation by Richard Hillary brings a burst of laughter from Rosemary Zertas, Gerald Wierzbicki and Tom Yared in Father Amadio's Latin class.

"A day without Latin? Not for us!" say these students in Sister Agnes Lea's Latin II class. Discussing plans for Latin Week are James Johnson, Dan Lewakowski, Tom Healey, Linda Manfusa, and Pamela Madges.

LATIN

Sister Irma's French class apply their linguistic knowledge by translating letters written in French.

FRENCH

SPANISH

"Languages, the Key to Brotherhood; the One Door to Tomorrow" is the theme of the panel discussion held by these Spanish II students: Thomas Eardley, Mary Barkwell, John Papma, John Harling and Joan Navasod.

LANGUAGES

We are living in an age when we can no longer isolate ourselves from other people of the world. Consequently, it is of dire necessity that we have a knowledge of the customs and languages of other people. Such is the motive behind the language courses offered at Catholic Central. Spanish, Latin, and French classes offer not only the basic fundamentals of the language, but also give a sound background on the customs and habits of the people.

Mike Mazurek points at an illustration which helps Sister Vincent's West Catholic Spanish students master their Spanish tenses.

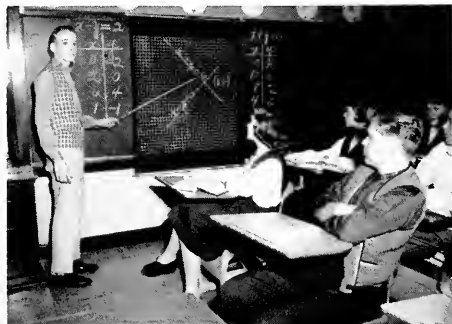

Fred Zambrski, Diane Zzyk, and Jim Walsh have found the solution to a quadratic equation in Sister Aquilina's Algebra I class.

MATHEMATICS

Year after year Catholic Central has graduated hundreds of students who have gone into the world and established a prominent standing in society.

Part of this success is due to Catholic's sound Mathematics curriculum which is designed to promote deep thinking on the part of the students and practical preparation for their futures.

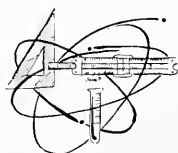

In a West Catholic Algebra class Dale Andree proves by use of a graph that his solution was correct. Row 1: Linda Malhaek, Joyce Wysocki and Jackie DeVries. Row 2: Albert Muth.

"We have successfully completed the exercise," say Mike Carmody, Les Prangle, Frank Clark, Pat Popma, and John Cassleman.

The usual recitation of the proposition of the day is executed by Lea Klinkhammer, Mary Jean Hare, and Sue Daggar in Sister Damien's Solid Geometry class.

SCIENCE

There are numerous exciting jobs open to all who pursue the science field. Catholic Central offers a sound scientific background to all interested students, both boys and girls.

The science curriculum consists of Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Physiology, and General Science which are taught by competent, well-versed instructors.

The use of advanced instruments is explained in Mr. Alkevicius's Physics class. Pat Lawyer, John Doyle, Jerry Dugol, Fred Hesse, Mr. Alkevicius, Chuck Frydrych, Dave Masters, Lea Klinkhammer, and Dave Dzierwa are shown examining an oscilloscope.

Joan Roppley and Mary Ann C. Hansen explain the different parts of the ear to Geraldine Wall, Alice Rogalski, Menetta Symczak and Loretta Butkiewicz.

John Rathwell, Dick Rademacker, Gerald Herdegen, John Maintz, and Jim Kazak are anxious to examine a rare fish in Sister Christina's Biology class.

What are they looking at? They have just learned that the extreme solubility of ammonia in water produces a partial vacuum. Who are they? James Truszkowski, Ray Pulawski, Robert Budzinski, Leslie Wurn, and Adelynn Fletcher. Sister Agnes Regina supervises.

Seniors: Geraldine Winowiecki, Joseph Askins, Ernest Zaremba, Joseph Horasim and Jerri Sydoski ardently present their views on steady dating in Mr. Hicks' Sociology class.

Mr. Wolf explains the effects of the Civil War to his Junior History students, Robert Sacha, Leo Schofer, Roger Sakowski, Joanne Scully, and Ronald Samsel.

Nancy Fuller traces the Lewis and Clark Expedition for Judy Androsiak and John Gersch in Sister Madeleine's American History class.

Sister Laura's World History students discuss the Roman Civilization. Participating are Carol Fron, Connie Seiferl, Richard Grzesiak, Timothy Meaney, Thomas Bartosiewicz, and James Novakowski.

Henry Fuhs leads a discussion on "Communism" in Civics Class while Mike Ball, Sherri Brooks, Joseph Dominiak, Barbara Byrne, Judy Donahue, and Robert Dalton listen for points which could be enlarged.

SOCIAL STUDIES

Past, present, and future history, world events and problems are studied and discussed by Catholic Central students in their history courses, which include World History, Church History and American History.

A study of government and social problems as made through the required senior course of Civics and Sociology gives each graduate a well-rounded knowledge of his duties as a future parent and citizen who is enlightened as to the place of a Christian in society.

Denise Deschoine, Judy Koepke, Carol Webb, and Bonnie Modges practice neatness, form, speed, and accuracy in business letters in Miss Konle's second year typing class.

Mrs. Robert Anderson, aided by a timed dictation record, gives her first year shorthand students a test in speed and accuracy with Bonita Kawrach, Sheila Hamrich, Patricia Isbell, and Semane DeFouw participating.

Sister Irene Therese demonstrates the use of an electric typewriter to her first year typing students, Raymond Pulawski, David Wisniski, Janic Sloma, Francis Sciamanno, and Leslie Wurn.

Carol Rohloff writes a note in shorthand which her fellow students will transcribe in Miss Konle's Shorthand II class. Sheila Vaughn, Carol Plewka, and Sandra Scholten, check Carol's work.

Mrs. Coker offers her bookkeeping students, Ruth Staskey, Patricia Roman, David Vanden Berg, Audrey Ben and Jeanne Van Gessell advice on their practice work.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

The key to the commercial world is held by the students who take the business preparatory courses offered, which consist of Typing, Shorthand, and Bookkeeping. Through the study of these courses the students acquire the basic business skills necessary for the operation of correct office procedures.

Students of art, Ed Zyniewicz, Patrick Spielmacher, George Razenski, Julie Baldwin, Betty Prawdzik, John Purins, and Sheryl Budnick make use of their special talent as they work on their pasters.

Sister Casimir's Mechanical Drawing students work industriously on their tangents. Hard at work are David Parsh, James Stimson, Ronald Jegier, Fred Haugordy, David Napier, Ed Sobczak, Bill Faber, John Maintz, and George Razenski.

Father McNamara and his speech students, Kay DeVries, Jaan Stephan, Linda Nye, Kathleen Manning, Jeanette Kamp and Carmen Biddle watch John Cooper record his voice.

ART MECHANICAL DRAWING SPEECH MUSIC

Bringing out the special talents endowed upon its students is another major portion of Catholic Central's educational system. Such classes as Art, Mechanical Drawing, Speech and Music are carried on daily by highly capable instructors who have the ability to recognize talent and perfect it.

Music students, Patricia Cavanaugh, Paula Werk, Mary Ann T. Hansen, David Kamm, Jacqueline Granger, Jaan Navasad, and Beverly Fritz listen to the soothing notes played by Charles Paposki under the supervision of Sister Anna Marie.

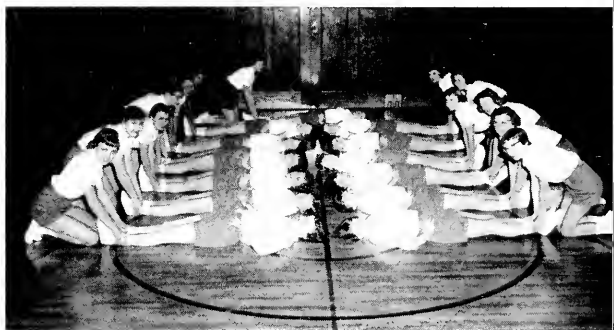

All hands high for the Texas Star.

Relays keep reflexes ship-shape.

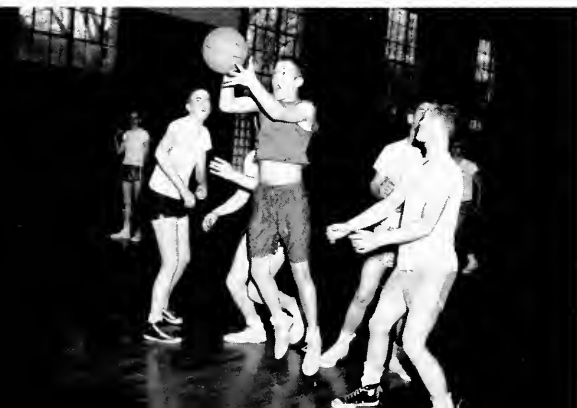

Gales of laughter and enthusiastic cheers echo through the gym, helping to break the strict monotony of a heavy curriculum.

Participation in numerous sports, exercises, and dances imprint an almost indelible mark on the physical and mental capabilities of our girls under the guidance of Mrs. Gordon LaBelle.

Daily exercises keep our girls trim and limber.

SOCIAL LIVING

The dances, parties, clubs and organizations made available to us throughout the year not only have left us with many lasting memories, but also have instilled within us the necessity of cooperation, responsibility, and organization — qualities essential to living a true Christian social life.

CHAPEL

The Chapel provides an opportunity for every student to take a minute away from the noise and confusion of friends and classes to pause in quiet reflection and contemplation before the Blessed Sacrament. Here students find peace and contentment in the presence and love of God.

Edward Jacques, Tony Zeboar, Leslie Wurn, Marilyn Wysocki, Patricio Olenjiczak, and Judie Draugelis took time to spend a few minutes in prayer between classes.

C. C. students are very fortunate to be able to receive Holy Communion daily.

Lindo Nye plays the organ at daily Mass.

"Marian Night" is the Club's great moment. The theme of this year's meeting centered around the season of Advent as a preparation for Christmas. Pictured above are Sharon Wisinski as the Angel Gabriel and Mary Ann Cooper as the Blessed Virgin.

Ken Pound, treasurer; Judy Siman, vice president; John Nawak, president; Carol Rohloff, secretary, the officers of the Marian Club, are meeting with Monsignor Murphy to discuss the activities of the Marian Club.

The Marian Central Committee, made up of the chairmen of each of the eight individual groups, takes part in the May Crowning. They are: Kneeling, H. Fuhs, B. Welsh, P. Curcuro, J. Brink, C. Maare, B. Byrne, B. Karyta, F. Prawdzik, Standing, J. Meneghini, S. Schalten, C. Rohloff, J. Siman, J. Nawak, K. Pound, J. Draugelis, and K. Szymczak.

MARIAN CLUB

The Marian Club has had a very successful year, thanks to the guidance of Sister M. Ottilia, O.P. and Sr. M. Audrey, O.P. Members of this club pledge themselves to hear Holy Mass and receive Holy Communion twice a week and to recite the rosary daily.

Activities of the Marian Club include: Recitation of the rosary in the grotto by the student body prior to the football games; "Marian Night," a spiritual gathering for the members and their mothers, and a style show, in which members modeled Mary-like fashions. Their main project, however, is to promote a spiritual atmosphere throughout the school.

The members of the Handmaids of the Blessed Sacrament are:

Row 1: Shelia McClure, Margaret Gregarski, Janice Hansen, Maryjean Hore, Patricia Smith, Deanna Spruit.

Row 2: Carolyn Hopkins, Patricia Terrel, Mary Ann Hansen, Kathy Szymczak, Joanne Grinczel, Francine Russell.

Performing their duties efficiently are: Carolyn Hopkins, Patricia Terrel, Mary Ann Hansen, and Kathy Szymczak.

HANDMAIDS OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

The Chapel has remained clean and neat — a fitting dwelling place for Our Lord — through the devoted service of the Handmaids of the Blessed Sacrament under the competent guidance of Sister Mary Ottilia, O.P. The duties of these members consist of laying out the priest's vestments as well as preparing the altar for Holy Mass and Benediction.

Displaying their work are:

Row 1: M. Scott, G. Wall, J. Sydloski, B. Modges, F. Bekken, A. Rogolski, V. Gabus, S. Bell, T. Johnson, and M. Kroon.
Row 2: M. Holland, J. Cornell, P. Zomara, R. Curte, and P. Crane.

Officers and Representatives of the Handmaids of Mary are:
Row 1: Kathy Hansen, ninth grade president; Agnes Long, tenth grade president; Chrysta Walsh, tenth grade secretary; Mary Jane Roboch, twelfth grade secretary; Betty Sehorn, ninth grade president; Jackie Nutt, ninth grade vice-president. Row 2: Morie Godleski, Eleventh grade; Gail Rosendall, eleventh grade; Sue Koltak, eleventh grade.

HANDMAIDS OF MARY

The Handmaids of Mary, under the direction of Sister Joseph Marie, continue their work for the missions by making rosaries, covering Sacred Heart and Mother of Confidence badges, sewing scapulars, and procuring other articles to send to the missions both near and far. As members of the Living Rosary, they recite the beads daily. They also attend Holy Mass and receive Holy Communion once a week especially for the missions. Sister Mary Norena advises the sophomore and freshmen girls.

HORIZON CLUB

The Interclub Council of the Horizon Club at Catholic Central is composed of two girls from each individual club as representatives. This council suggests an exchange of different worth-while projects and activities which better each of the many clubs. Outstanding among the projects was the annual "Spring Style Show."

Members of the Interclub Council are: Sue Roberts, Mary Jane Spica, Mary Ann Ranan, Jay Jacques, and Patricia Peet.

USHERS CLUB

The Ushers, with poise and courtesy, seated and directed the student body during the various assemblies of the school year. Under the competent guidance of Sister M. Damien, these young men have culminated another successful year.

Members of the Ushers Club are:

Row 1: M. Castella, J. Stimpson, J. Brink, B. Weycamp, B. Feutz, T. Ven Ray.

Row 2: Sister Damien, P. Kernicki, J. Maxim, M. Gainey, V. Thiry, C. Paganelli, R. Dalton, and J. Askins.

Row 3: C. Collins, T. Jorgensen, J. Alt, V. Fax, E. Zyniewicz, M. Sullivan, and B. Kinsman.

Row 4: H. Fuhs, R. Thomas, B. Heitzman, B. Dill, D. Dzierwa, F. Hesse, and D. Nahs.

Senior Officers of the Student Council with Sister Judith: Bonnie Kompfschulte, vice-president; Bill Manning, Margaret Hoogerhyde, secretary; and Joan Rappleyco.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The large and well organized Student Council is most helpful in promoting and maintaining order, and seeing that disciplinary measures are observed. These guardians of the law, under the supervision of Sr. M. Judith, O. P., have kept in mind their motto — "Friendly Persuasion." Their duties are to alleviate congestion in the halls, issue passes and penalties when necessary, monitor study halls, and be generally helpful to the office staff and the faculty.

Signing this pass for Bonnie Bowhuis is just one of the ordinary tasks performed by Bonnie Kompfschulte along with all the important tasks of the post in the West Building.

Here sits Harold Popma — boy Student Councilor.

The Junior and Sophomore representatives of the Student Council are: Bonnie Henry, sophomore; Charles Poposki, junior; Joe Ellen Denman, junior; and Leonard Rodecki, sophomore.

Members of the West Catholic Library Club are:

Front Row: F. Siedlecki, J. Nadalski, M. Szymczak, president; P. Labanowski, D. Markini, L. Paskiewicz, secretary; J. Schumacher, and L. Luskin.
Back Row: M. Maiques, C. Kaprawski, M. Loser, I. Marczynski, S. Straubel, S. Krzywos, C. Truskowski, T. Reus, N. Pattack, S. Fex, M. Schmiedicki, and P. Rasloniec.

Members of the Library Club: At desk, J. Gaoder.

Row 1: M. Bogart, J. Duemler, M. A. Morek, S. Thaar, J. Idziak, J. Druke, S. Kalarik.

Row 2: T. Travis, A. Trasky, B. K. Madges, M. M. McPhilly, M. Fitzgerald, J. Hammer, C. Band, U. Milins.
Row 3: A. Vickers, M. J. Shado, J. Martin, J. Bastwick, K. Jenkins, B. White, S. Mitchell.

Row 4: D. Adams, K. Martin, and E. Nawak.

LIBRARY CLUBS

Under the able supervision of Sister Mary Hieranyma and Sister Teresa Marie, Catholic Central's Library Club provides valuable assistance to their fellow students in helping them with their library needs. Members also label, repair, check out books, and assist about the library.

The officers of the Library Club are: Bonnie Madges, Jean Gaoder, and Linda Norman.

These librarians have learned that there is much more work in the library than one thinks. They are: A. Westveer, L. Norman, D. Andersen, R. Seymour, J. Ogg, and J. Orr.

Members of the Future Nurses Club headed by Mrs. Anderson are: Row 1: Linda Nye, treasurer; Rosanne Tamczak, president; Kathy Wagner, vice president; Anita Sokolaske, secretary; and Mrs. Robert Anderson.

Row 2: Pat Steele, Irene Pfeiffer, Marie Hoffman, Carol Gregorski.

Row 3: Louise Willman, Margaret Brzesinski, Jaan Stephan, Irene Fortuna.

Row 4: Jane Laugh, Mary Ja Shada, Barb McKenna, Janice Hansen.

Row 5: Judy Koepke, Jerry Rice, Barb Ross, and Sue Dagger.

FUTURE NURSES

Touring hospitals and studying different fields of nursing are among the many activities that the Future Nurses Club enjoyed this year. This club, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Anderson, is an excellent preliminary preparation for a future nurse's career.

Officers of the West C. C. Future Nurses: Mary Louise Gribos, Elizabeth Haraburda, Mary Ellen and Susan Pattack.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The infant Dramatic Club, supervised by Sister Mary Leone, S.S.N.D., aims to discover and train youthful talent for acting. A variety of assemblies offers many opportunities to develop potential abilities. These assemblies are a perfect and enjoyable means of showing the success of the club and the actors.

James Waraniecki, Jerry Taylor, Mary Ann Arsulawicz, and Jean Lyman, officers of the West C. C. Dramatics Club, display the symbols of dramatics.

Planning their next meeting are the Future Teacher Officers:
Seated: Judie Draugelis, co-president; Mike Costella, president.
Standing: Carol Yalacki, secretary; Carol Gregorski, librarian; and Ed Urbanski, treasurer.

FUTURE TEACHERS

Formed around its motto, "For the Progress of Jack and Jill," with Sister Rose Miriam, O. P., assisting as Sponsor, the Future Teachers Club has become one of the most active of clubs at Catholic Central. At its meetings, which often included guest speakers, the members became acquainted with teaching techniques, which they, as cadets, were later privileged to practice in a local grade school. This club, affiliated with the NEA, received its Charter this year.

Future Teachers hoping to lift the youth of America are:

Row 1: E. Ostrawski, J. Tazelaar.

Row 2: T. Sevic, C. Nezwiek, J. Hargan, M. K. Nickels, D. Frances, J. Sirahan.

Row 3: J. Malt, J. Rice, F. Hesse, and B. Kinsman.

HOMEMAKERS CLUB

By meeting daily with their advisor, Sister M. Rosalina, the senior girls of the Homemakers Club strove to increase their knowledge of the household arts. Projects, reports and the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Contest were some of the activities undertaken.

The activities of the Future Homemakers are many. Modeling their outfits are J. Stouten and H. Feldspausch; showing her model bedroom is M. A. Cooper; and receiving her pin from D. Bielecki, president; is I. Fortuna, the school winner of the Betty Crocker Homemakers test.

Members of the Future Homemakers are:

Row 1: J. Emery, P. Bartas, P. Hass, K. Heibel, B. Strauss, B. Prawdzik, B. Ross, C. Nezer, B. Freybler.

Row 2: K. Buckley, D. Kanwinski, A. M. Prasecki, P. Berg, S. Holcamb, F. Finley, S. Feutz, B. Klacka, J. Cornell, M. A. Cooper.

Row 3: K. Mulvihill, M. Routsow, N. Wheeler, I. Fortuna, C. Mroz, J. Draugelis, J. Maun, M. A. Palcer, R. Bagrowski, D. Andrews.

Row 4: J. Simon, J. Razegnol, J. Sydlaski, F. Soukas, S. Bracks, S. Andrews, H. Behrendt, B. Bawhuis, G. Duthiewicz, and J. Baldwin.

FRENCH CLUB

Students participating in a portrayal of the "Story of Lourdes" are: L. Fritz, T. Hestand, P. Christensen, V. Gerulis; S. Haekstra, Blessed Virgin; and M. Sherwaad, Bernadette.

Admiring the French Club's display case are its officers: D. Alexander, president; D. Mileski, vice president; D. Bielecki, secretary; and T. Righthart, treasurer.

Under the capable guidance of Sister Mary Irma, the members of the French Club have enriched their appreciation of the French language and its culture. They strive to acquire a speaking knowledge of French by conducting their meetings entirely in French.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club, directed by Sister Agnes Therese, has been successfully organized to cultivate interests in Spanish culture and language. By means of reading, corresponding with students abroad, preparing for and participating in the Annual Spanish Banquet, with its program of native games and dances, and by observing the National Foreign Language Week, the members of the club have gained an enriching knowledge to benefit them throughout their life.

A dancing scene and smiling faces display the wonderful time had by all at the Spanish Club Banquet.

Meeting with their advisor, Mr. Alkevicius, are the officers of the senior Jets: president, Tom Wisniewski; vice-president, Jim Leach; communications officer, Tom Jorgensen; treasurer, Chuck Frydrych.

Officers of the Pioneer Jets are: president, Robert Ampulski; vice president, Terry Huyge; communications officer, Jerry Sremba; treasurer, Dennis Manikowski.

SKI CLUB

Caberfae and Boyne Mountain were the scenes of excursions for C. C.'s enthusiastic Ski Club members. This new club is both competitive and recreational.

Checking out a good ski trail are: George Jackabaice, Mary Calvaruso, Margaret Leach, Mike Sullivan, Pete Gamm, Barb Wysacki, Charalatte Rudolph, Fred Hesse, Jerry Sremba, and Ed Zyniewicz, members of the Ski Club.

JETS CLUBS

Formed around the nucleus of its officers, the Jets Clubs of Catholic Central have come a long way in preparing its members for the engineering fields. Interesting speakers gave lectures and exhibitions; the Jets themselves prepared science projects. Scientific literature is always available to the members. Much of their success is due to the faculty advisors: Sr. Gervase, Sr. Agnes Regina, and Mr. Alkevicius.

MISSION CLUB

The West Side Mission Club, under the direction of Sister Mary Mechilde, S. S. N. D., was organized to aid the apostolate through the efforts of the students, who contribute money, stamps, greeting cards, etc., to the missions, and especially pray for the success and well being of the clergy and religious who are working in this section of the vineyard.

The Mission Club officers review the Club's successful projects. They are: Jerry Warnicke, Teresa Kleibusch, and Diane Bochniak. Missing is Richard Smolinski.

With pep and zest the reserve cheerleaders helped promote team spirit throughout the games.

CHEERLEADERS

"We've got the spirit — we want to hear it!"

With such words the varsity and the reserve cheerleading squads encouraged enthusiastic cheering of basketball and football games. Snappy new cheers and formations added much color to the athletic events. The three groups, freshmen, sophomore, and junior, are coached by Mrs. Gordon LaBelle.

Forming their "V" the freshmen cheerleaders helped bring their team to victory. They are: Jean Argile, Miriam Alciorre, Kathy Miller, Diane Quist, Bonnie Kalenda, Nancy Parrette, JoAnn Cwayna.

Displaying tremendous school spirit and example are the varsity cheerleaders: Mary Ellen Wagner, Jackie Parsh, Mary Eggleston, Barb Shite, D'ana Challendar, Mickie Rogers, Jay Jacques, Phyl Sablack, Mo Eardley.

COUGARETTES

The Senior girls' cheering section known as the "COUGARETTES," was under the direction of Miss A. Schoen this year. The large group backed the cheerleaders in boosting the school morale at many athletic contests and pep rallies during the year.

SENIOR GLEE CLUB

The forty-three members of the Senior Glee Club completed another successful season. During the course of the year their mellow voices lent an air of gaiety to many festive functions. Among these were Marian Night, Senior Christmas Party, Class Night, and the Spring Concert. The repertoire of these talented sangsters, under the capable direction of Sister Anna Marie, ranges from the moving spiritual, Ave Verum, to the strains of a light-hearted selection from the musical, "Oklahoma!"

BAND

The band under the expert guidance of Mr. Johnson had a most successful year. Along with training the present band for the football games, parades, and the annual Spring Concert, Mr. Johnson has been preparing a Junior Bond. This group is made up of boys and girls from the Catholic elementary schools. Such training will make possible a well prepared selection of players for the Senior Band when they enter C.C. in their Freshman year.

Although Sister Lucy's School may appear a somewhat peaceful and quiet place to the casual observer, inside it is a hub of activity.

The editors, having just returned from the Catholic Press Conference in Milwaukee are brimming with ideas, and the entire staff is frantically working; planning lay-outs, writing copy, and cropping pictures in order to get the Spires to press before deadline day.

Although teamwork and co-operation are necessary to produce a successful yearbook, the most essential ingredient is Sister Lucy Marie, without whose help, sacrifice, and work our Spires would never be possible.

Bob Misner, Rick Kalinowski, Mike Ward, Ed Wysacki, Jim Ryan, and other members of the football team prove to be competition for Hawaiian hula dancers.

Celebrating a championship football season, the Senior Class of '59 presented a victory mixer in the school cafeteria. Highlighting the evening was the presentation of the champion football team by Assistant coach, Mr. Joseph Godleski. An assortment of fine entertainment completed the memorable evening.

To co-chairmen, Tim Dennis and Patricia Halmes, was attributed the success of the dance.

"The Sandy-K's," Penny Krucki, Sindy Scholten, Kay Kulhawik, and Mary Ann Karczewski singing "Moments to Remember."

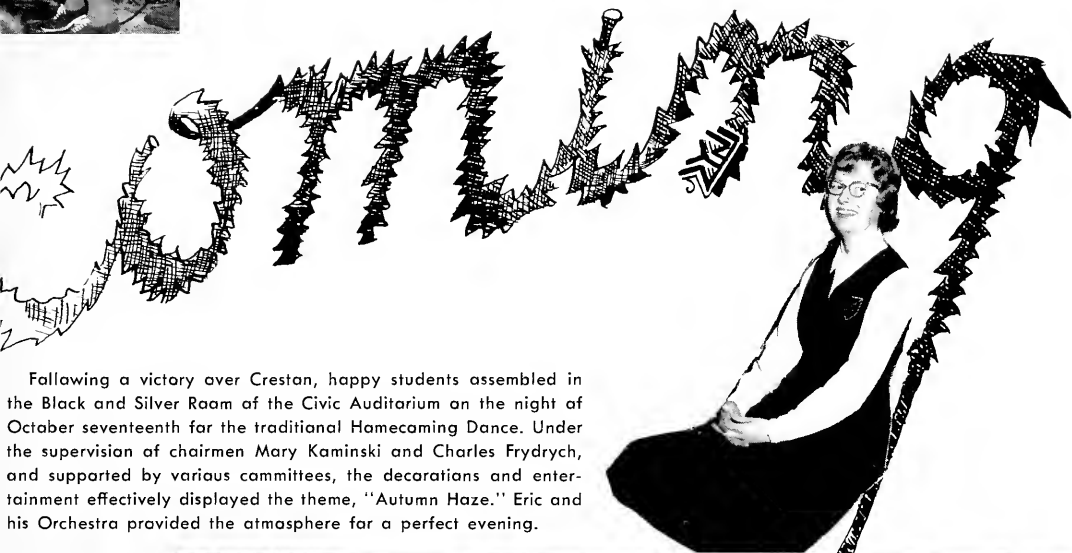

Center of attention and the hula hoop, Jim Maduro sets the pace for Carol Walatira, Ed Urbanski, Barbara Strauss, and Judy Siman.

"The Three Habas," Kathy Duba, Judy Ficeli, and Patricia Olejniczak give their rendition of "Walking Along."

Following a victory over Crestan, happy students assembled in the Black and Silver Room of the Civic Auditorium on the night of October seventeenth for the traditional Homecoming Dance. Under the supervision of chairmen Mary Kaminski and Charles Frydrych, and supported by various committees, the decorations and entertainment effectively displayed the theme, "Autumn Haze." Eric and his Orchestra provided the atmosphere for a perfect evening.

Chairmen: George Jackaboice and Carmen Biddle.

Christ Pa

A successful, pre-Christmas celebration was enjoyed at the annual Christmas Party. A fine selection of expert talent, highlighted by the Nativity Scene, provided entertainment for all. This merry event will remain unforgettable in the hearts of all who attended.

Members of the Marian Club portray a beautiful nativity scene. With Patricia Smith as the Blessed Mother and Robert Blanchard as St. Joseph, the scene was enhanced with solemnity.

WEST SIDE RETREAT

Through the work of Redemptorist, priest, Reverend Thomas Tobin, C.Ss.R., West Side students appear to have made a successful retreat. This annual event makes possible self-recollection, and merits grace for all willing to accept it.

St. Adalbert Church is also crowded as an address is made to the students.

RETREAT

Exams being completed, students entered with light hearts into the spirit of Retreat. During these days they were able to observe themselves through spiritual reading, meditation, and silence.

Conferences in the Cathedral by the retreat master, Reverend John Daly, C. Ss. R., offered spiritual guidance and interesting explanations of truths of the faith.

More than two thousand students took advantage of the opportunity to cleanse their souls through the Sacrament of Penance. Through this retreat, individual benefits were received by each member of the student body.

Sno - Shuffle

"The Bluettes," Margaret Hoogerhyde, Mary Kaminski, Betty Prawdzik, and Darlyn Bielecki, beautifully harmonize to "Dancing in the Dark."

Marks Hinds sings of what happens "After the Senior Prom."

Mary Jo Shoda gracefully dances to a rhythmic tune.

A perfect "Cinderella" evening was enjoyed January twenty-third by students of Catholic Central and their dates. Vivid decorations carried out the theme "At the Stroke of Midnight," which created a mystifying atmosphere for the couples absorbing the mellow strains of the Ambassadors. The coronation of "Queen" Barbara Wysocki and "King" Robert Misner spotlighted the event amid other marvelous displays of student talent. Assuredly the '59 Sno-Shuffle will go down in our collection of unforgettable memories.

Success is accomplished through the efforts of chairmen Kay and Don Hillory.

Decorations echoed the theme, "Spring Nocturne" while many happy couples danced until midnight.

Mary Calvaruso shows us her interpretation of "April Love."

J - HOP

April 17, 1958 — Although the day was marred by frequent showers, the class of 1959 enjoyed its first important social function, the J-HOP.

Co-Chairman, Margaret Hoogerhyde and Chuck Collins along with various committee members co-operated to demonstrate the capabilities of their class in producing an evening of happy memories.

Fred Hesse, M.C. of the 1958 J-HOP, keeps the entertainment going at an enjoyable pace.

Winners: Patricia Olejniczak, Barb Czoehorski, Judy Black.

NOMA CONTEST WINNERS

Annually the National Office Management Association conducts a nation-wide spelling contest. Words used in the test are chosen from a list of six hundred words most commonly used — and misspelled — in business communications today.

Only twelve among five thousand students in forty West Michigan schools scored 100 percent in both phases of the test. Three of the twelve were the Catholic Central students pictured herewith. Patricia Olejniczak also scored 100 percent on the three phases of the test given in 1958.

C. C. 26      Saginaw A. H. 6

C. C. opened its 1958 grid season with an impressive triumph over tough Saginaw Arthur Hill, 26-6. This victory broke a six game opening game loss streak and gave notice to other foes that the Cougare were not to be regarded lightly.

Fullback Bill Shuple scored the Cougars first T. D. on a 15 yard scamper. Later in the first period Bob Misner rambled 54 yards into paydirt. Rick Kalinowski scored Catholic's third marker on a 21 yard blast through the Lumberjack's line. Catholic's last touchdown came when quarterback Jim Ryan threw his only pass of the game and connected with end Dan Blain, who made a leaping catch for the score.

Touch me and I'll scream.

Just a minute, I wanta talk to you.

C. C. 32

South 12

With the lightning speed and impact of a guided missile, Catholic Central's "iron men" rendered the South High gridders helpless. Behind the City League's finest forward wall prowled quarterback Jim Ryan, calling the time and place to launch Bill Shuple, Bob Misner, Tim Barager, and Tom Nystrom. With the superb, sometimes fierce blocking of Dan Blain, Mike Ward, and Chuck Collins, the Cougar scat-backs were usually "on target." When the final seconds ticked off, the scoreboard read a lopsided 32-12 in favor of the visitors and Catholic Central walked off with its first local victory.

C. C. 7

Flint 19

The visitors from Flint, taking advantage of every break, proved to be a mite too much for the Cougars. After opening the game in true Catholic Central tradition with a 34 yard touchdown jaunt by Bill Shuple, the Cat-men were forced to take a back seat.

The rest is history, but by ending up on the short end of a 19 to 7 score, the Sheldonites of '59 have left a goal for the future.

Get out of my life.

I am going home.

C. C. 31

Central 7

After being plagued by a bad case of "fumblitis" and held to a 7-7 tie at the half, the powerful Cougars came roaring back to grab a 31-7 win.

Catholic scored first on a 27 yard pass from Jim Ryan to Jim Wysocki. With 41 seconds remaining in the half, Central scared their lone touchdown after a Cougar fumble set it up.

Bob Misner opened the second half scoring with a two yard plunge, then sophomore Bob Quist followed with a three yard blast over the middle to give the Cougars a 19-7 third quarter lead. On the opening play of the fourth quarter, junior speedster Pat Dennis raced 75 yards for a T. D. Bob Misner then capped a 76 yard drive by scoring from the ane.

Backs Bob Misner, Bob Quist, and Pat Dennis, plus linemen George Jackboice and Dan Blain, played an outstanding game.

Misner breaks through again.

C. C. 28

Creston 6

Catholic treated seven thousand home-coming fans to a sound 28 to 6 victory over the Creston Polar Bears. The powerful Cougars, with two top backs, Bill Shuple and Tim Barager and star lineman, Mike Ward, out with injuries, amassed nearly 400 yards rushing while a rack-ribbed defense paced by Dan Blain, George Jackoboice and Chuck Collins held the Polar Bears a mere 36 yards.

With the game only 10 plays old, Bob Quist scored from 29 yards out. Catholic's second T. D. also came in the first stanza with Pat Dennis sprinting 30 yards around left end for the score. Later in the first half, Bob Misner skirted the end from half a yard out for Catholic's third touchdown and a 21 to 7 lead at half time. Dennis climaxed the scoring for the night by blasting over from the 2 for his second T. D. of the game.

They're doing the Bunny-Hop.

C. C. 27

Ottawa 6

Nearly ten thousand fans witnessed an Indian massacre in which the Ottawa tribe was tamed by a pack of wild Cougars. The clean, hard football played by Catholic forward wall paved the way for the determined backs and thus the game was half won. The Sawle-men, trained for rough and tumble football, held the defensive half of the contest in the palms of their hands. The Indians, unable to conform to football at its best, crumbled.

I owe it all to my doring mother.

C. C. 38

Detroit 6

Detroit's Shamrocks learned it takes more than the luck of the Irish to stop a victory hungry Cougar, and the Buckley Field boys showed they could fight and win even on foreign soil. The Motor City's end zone must have had a magnetic attraction for Bill Shuple, who tasted paydirt three times. Not to be outdone, All City end Dan Blain scored on the receiving end of a Jim Ryan pass. For want of something better to do, both Misner and Nystrom crossed the goal line in the last quarter, thus climaxing the Detroit rivalry with a 38 to 6 victory.

Nice Pass, Jimmy!

C. C. 29

Union 6

Ted Sowle's efficient eleven entered Housemon field assured of two things: first, the City League Title, and second, that past history would not be repeated. All that remained for the Cot-men to do was to convince Union. So once again behind the broad, powerful shoulders of an All American line, bulldog Bill Shuple was unleashed, and along with Bob Misner, Jim Ryan, and Tim Baroger, the Union goal was frequently invaded. The Cougars with a 27 to 6 victory in sight were still sharp, and when late in the final period opportunity once again knocked, the Blue and White struck with cat-like swiftness to smother an unsuspecting Unionite behind his goal. The over-worked score-board ended its night heralding a 29 to 6 victory for the Cougars.

If I score I'll get my letter.

Muskegon C. C. 6

Backed by tremendous school spirit, big brother Cougar took away little brother Crusaders most cherished dream, that of an undefeated season. In downing the Muskegonites, the Cat-men played one of the finest games in Grand Rapids C. C.'s proud football history.

With the game less than five minutes old, fullback Bill Shuple scored the first of his three touchdowns by blasting over from the four. The Crusaders marched right back to score but they never moved into the Cougar's den again. Bob Misner set up the next C. C. score by rambling 31 yards to the 30 yard line. Sophomore Bob Quist went in on the next play for a 13 to 6 half-time lead.

Early in the fourth period Bill Shuple scored his second marker on a 4 yard burst. Shuple went over for the final score late in the period after a 51 yard sprint by Bob Misner.

Catholic was paced by fine performance from Ed Zyniewicz, Mike Ward, Bob Misner, Jim Wysocki, George Jackoboice, Dan Blain, Chuck Collins, Volker Thiry, and Jim Ryan.

DEDICATION

Cougar Varsity

The Cougar Varsity football team displayed depth in every position to capture the 1958 city football championship, and a No. 3 ranking in the state. The team scored a total of 245 points to its opponents 75.

The team was led by its 17 senior members, who formed its nucleus, but individual performers cannot be singled out for their excellent play because it was team ability, spirit, and cooperation which carried the "Cougours" to another fine season.

CROSS - COUNTRY

The '58 season proved a very successful one for the Catholic Central cross country team. Under the excellent direction of coach Jim Schultz the Cougar runners entered and emerged victors in every meet. The hairy-legged harriers from Sheldon Avenue not only brought glory to their alma-mater, but donated the first 70 Cougar points toward the coveted all sports trophy.

The '58 team was made up of four seniors, Mike Costello, Fred Hesse, John Purins, and Larry Jachim. It cannot be denied that a great deal of the team's outstanding success should be attributed to the fine performances of these boys.

But it was not just four boys that won the meets. It was hard work, rigorous training, and the sacrifice of personal time on the part of Mr. Schultz as well as his team. Although our cross country team lacked the first-class student backing other sports had, they still were first-class winners.

Off we trat, through the weeds.

On your Mark!

Coach Jim Schultz
plans his STRATEGY.

BASKETBALL

Despite the relentless efforts of the Catholic Cagers we regret that they failed to place their team in the basketball lime-light. After dropping six consecutive games the Cougars scored their first victory over Christian, with a 62-55 win. High point man was Tim Baragar with 15 points. As fate would have it the Cougars failed to come up with a victory in the next three games. Friday, February 6, the boys from Sheldon Street pulled their second victory out of the fire, by coming up with a 63 to 49 victory over Creston. The stand-outs were the Barager brothers, Tim with 22 points, and Larry with 19. Outstanding also, were Dave Dzierwa and Bob Erhard. On the backboard it was Bob Everin's pin-point passing that proved the Cougars were destined for victory. Again Ottawa topped the Cougars as did Central and Christian. The city league basketball ended for Catholic with a loss to Union.

Although the '59 record left much to be desired, Catholic Central students and faculty are proud of the team, and justly so. Leaving are three seniors, Tim Baragar, D. Dzierwa, and R. Dill, a trio deserving sincere congratulations for the time and effort they have put forth for the team. It is dedication like this that makes Catholic Central High School the leader it is. As for the rest of the team, congratulations, and best wishes for next year.

CRESTON Don't touch it, it's in arbit.

CENTRAL Lordy! Look at that man jump!

UNION Stand back boys, Dave will handle this.

CITY CHAMPS

The Swimming Team, under the direction of Coach LaVerne Wolf, and led by its senior members, took undisputed possession of the City Dual and City Meet Championships this year. Undefeated in seven consecutive meets the team suffered only one loss during the year to Grand Haven in a non-league meet. Credit for an outstanding performance was achieved by Jim Wysocki, who broke the City records in the 40 and 100 yd. free-style events and was named to the Prep All-American second team. Departing Senior members Ed Urbanski, Bill Manning, Ed Elderkin, Ed Wysocki, and Pete Gamm will be missed in the following seasons, and the job of retaining the Championship will be left in the hands of talented underclassmen such as Bob Ryan, Dick Huyge, Dan Jaskiewicz, Brian Bergen, and Dave Wizorek.

TRACK

Come spring, a young man's fancy turns toward — track. At least that's what one would think while observing the contenders going through their after school paces.

Under the watchful eye of Ted Sowle, the athletic master-mind, the boys show definite signs of hitting the top in city competition.

Behind the iron ball stands Chuck Collins, a veteran, along with two newcomers, Bill Dendenius and Bob Taylor, who are giving proof of their ability.

Fighting for new heights in their athletic ambitions are senior pole vaulters Tim Borager, Jim Ryan, and Mike Sullivan. Other storied favorites are Bob Everin, Bob Quist, and Jim Gardner in the high jump. Broad jumpers Larry Jachim and George Johnson are jumping their way to victory, while the distance runners Mike Costello, Mike Perszak, John Purins and Pat Griffin are really coming through in the long run.

Taking everything into consideration the future seems quite bright for the Cougar track team, and the boys are to be commended for the fine job they are doing in an effort to make this track season one of Catholic Central's best.

TENNIS

'59 seems to be the year for the spring sports. Mr. Wolf, it appears, has whipped quite a tennis team into shape. On the court the boys seem to have the spring and bounce necessary to chalk up a line of victories. The team finished with a season's record of three wins, two losses and a tie.

GOLF

Jules Sommer seems to have a real hot group of boys swinging the golf clubs. They not only appear to have the will to win, but to have the means as well.

Golf is a sport of skill and potience, and perfection in it requires much tedious practice. Both coach and team deserve to be commended for the time and effort they have expended to bring honor to Catholic Central. A golf championship may bring the All-Sports Trophy back home to C.C.H.S., where it belongs.

Receiving instructions from Coach J. Sommer are:
R. Wisinski, I. Klaska, F. Berles, and B. Kamm.

BASEBALL

The crack of the bat and the cheering of the fans is almost as good a sign that Spring is here as is the robin; and by the looks of things the Cougar baseball fans will have plenty to cheer about. The C.C. bat-men are making a strong bid for the city crown, and their chances of getting it are promising. The team is made up of several veterans of one, two, and three years experience as well as a fair number of newcomers to make the season interesting.

Congratulations are in order to Coach Joe Godleski for the fine work his team is doing. Good luck to all.

IMPRINTS . . .

UNDERCLASSMEN

The path that leads to graduation is a long one. The boys and girls that enter Catholic Central as Freshmen will emerge four years later as young men and women. The Christian education they receive, and the growth of knowledge and experience that each year brings, will lead them to spiritual and intellectual maturity and will leave IMPRINTS of Christian ideals and principles on their minds and souls.

These are the Underclassmen — the citizens of tomorrow.

The Junior Class has had a very successful and enjoyable year under the capable leadership of this year's council.

DEDICATED TO THE SISTERS OF C.C.

After each football game this is what the sisters wait to hear — the team's report in unison, "Sisters, Sisters — we won, we won — thirty-two to six, thirty-two to six!"

DEDICATED TO FRANK GEARY

A moment of prayer before each game, and a moment of prayer after each game helps to sanctify every action, be it study or play.

CULINARY STAFFS: West Catholic: Mrs. J. Baran, Mrs. T. Franckowiak, Mrs. H. Hawe, Mrs. V. Dutkiewicz, Mrs. J. Kasianowicz.

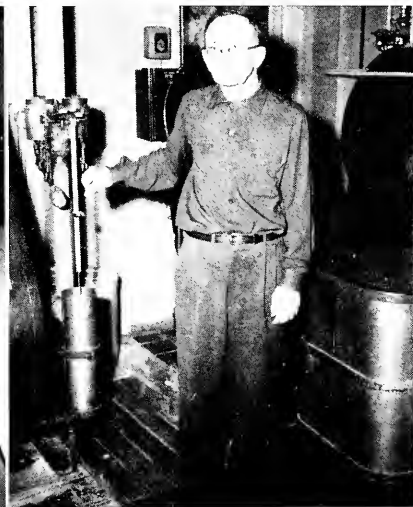

East Catholic: Mrs. C. Mays, Mrs. L. Dausen, Mrs. F. Grass, Mrs. S. Kuenzel, Mrs. I. Nichols.

WHAT WOULD WE DO WITHOUT THEM?

MAINTENANCE STAFF:

Dave Wrightsmann readies the cafeteria for the next day's invasion. Joseph Bukowski, convent caretaker, engineer and handy man.

Walter Fritz, on leave from "building maintenance" to recuperate after surgery, smiles broadly to prove that he finds "discipline maintenance" in study halls a few periods a day a pleasant way to break the monotony of loafing.

Pedro De Gennara — about to retire.

Bart Schmuker. Does paint hurt his eyes?

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Like many other complicated undertakings, a yearbook demands time for production, and, what is more important, people to produce it.

Besides the cooperative students who toiled during this book's formative period, several other individuals contributed much needed services.

Mrs. Bert Bos and Mr. Henry Werkema of Versluis Studio gave us unselfish assistance with photographic work; Mr. Alvin Burkle of the Dean-Hicks Company aided us with general advice. Finally there was Sister Lucy Marie, our constant adviser, who actually instrumented the organization and the completion of the annual.

To the above-mentioned, in behalf of the entire staff of 1959, we extend our warmest "thank you's" and hope that you, the reader, enjoy the contents of the SPIRES of 1959.

Chuck Frydrych
Mary Kaminski

MOMENTS TO REMEMBER

1. J. Leach, C. Frydrych, and W. Faber relax between conferences in Detroit.

2. E. Prawdzik limbers up!

3. "Mmm, this is good," T. Wisneski exclaims to D. Kubiak and E. Wysocki at their eighth-grade picnic.

4. J. Simon and C. Wolotira model what the well dressed girl wears to Church.

5. "My fish must weigh at LEAST 10 pounds," K. Szymczak says proudly.

6. "Who says that dill pickles and milk don't mix?" asks P. McGillicuddy.

7. "We were 77 pound weaklings," E. Zyniewicz and C. Mroz say, "before we went to Atlas."

8. McKenna shows her happiness over the arrival of the SPIRES photographer.

9. D. Siemian awaits her cue with queenly grace.

10. "Kill it before it multiplies!" L. Golembewski,

Joe College (J. Butler) exhibits his sharp legs.

11. "It's a F-O-R-D," D. Parsh proudly remarks.
